THE CANTEEN DEFENDED BY A CHAPLAIN.

Figures as to the Number of Saloons in Manila Perverted-Sobriety on the Increase.

THE NATIVE GIN. SHACKS

Had a Deplorable Effect Upon the Troops--Gen. Funston May be Tried by Court Martial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.--A defense of the administration of affairs at Manila is contained in a report just made public to the war department by Chaplain Charles C. Pierce. This officer particularly antagonizes the ex-chaplain of volunteers, who has been so severely criticised in the Philippine American troops in the Philippines, making the charge of wholesale intoxication and telling of the enormous increase in the number of liquor drinking saloons in Manila.

The chaplain declares that the figures as to the number of saloons have been perverted; that the American saloon took the place of an untold number of native gin-shacks which dispensed ill-gotten liquor with deplorable effect upon the American troops and that the substitution of the regimental canteen has resulted in an improvement in the sobriety of the troops.

Chaplain Pierce also speaks in terms of high praise of the reformation of the critical conditions in Manila, its cleanliness and sanitation with the resulting improvement in general health.

FIGHTING FRED FUNSTON

Has Serious Charges Brought Against Him--A Trial Anticipated.

MANILA, April 9, 8:20 p. m.--An interesting topic of conversation in army circles is the investigation of Brigadier General Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom.

The story is that the Filipinos captured three Maccabebe scouts who were crossing the country near San Isidro, and were preparing to kill them when one of the Maccabebes escaped and found General Funston with a scouting party near. This man guided the Americans to the rescue of his companions and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Maccabebes. Several of the Filipinos were shot and General Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hanged them without trial, as a warning to the Filipinos.

The present method of warfare and instances of the mutilation of prisoners have incensed the American soldiers to such a degree that they feel justified in making reprisals, which has been done on several occasions recently.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Captain Dovenor Introduces a Fish Culture Bill--Senator Scott a Guest of Young Republicans of Philadelphia.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.--Representative Dovenor to-day introduced a bill to permit the construction of a bridge across the Big Sandy river, at Kenova. A similar bill was introduced in the senate several days ago, by Senator Elkins, at the request of ex-Senator Camden.

Mr. Dovenor introduced a bill, the duplicate of one previously introduced in the senate, to authorize the establishment of a station for fish culture in West Virginia, under the direction of Commissioner Bowers.

Representative Dayton has introduced a bill in the house for the relief of the Elk Branch Presbyterian church, in Jefferson county, West Virginia.

Representatives Dayton and Dovenor left to-night for their homes in West Virginia. Both will be back in time to vote Thursday, on the Porto Rican bill. Representative Freer has been absent since Saturday evening. He also is expected back before Thursday.

Senator Scott went with a party to Philadelphia this afternoon, as the guest of the Young Republican Club, of that city, at their twentieth annual banquet, which takes place this evening. The party was composed of Senators Fairbanks, Hanna and Scott, and Representatives Hull, Cannon and Landis. The gentlemen named were under the escort of a committee of the club.

Went Over the Old Battlefield.

Representative Dovenor returned from Richmond this morning, whither he had been, with others of the rivers and harbors committee of the house, looking after proposed improvements. The appointment for the trip was made by Representative Epps, of Virginia. Prior to his death, and the party was accompanied by Representative Lamb, of the same state. Captain Dovenor remained a day after the business was concluded, and in company with a number of ex-Confederate officers visited the scene where in 1864-65 his regiment was camped prior to the collapse of the Confederacy. Among other places visited was Fort Harrison, where there is a small national cemetery, and in the list of those buried there, he found the name of Sergeant Fletcher, of Company B, Twelfth West Virginia Infantry, who was killed at Childrey's farm, February 6, 1865. There are several hundred Union soldiers buried in the cemetery, and Fletcher's in No. 20.

The sub-committee of which Captain Dovenor was a member, visited Richmond, Petersburg, Dutch Gap, and points on the James river. The whole committee will make a trip over the same territory about the 16th of May. The committee is collecting material for its report which, it is understood, will be made at the second session of the present Congress.

But few, if any hearings will be given on proposed improvements after the close of the present session.

QUAY TURNED DOWN.

Senate Again Under Leadership of Burrows, Refuses to Vote on His Case--Nothing New in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.--After some further discussion the senate today rejected the sectarian school amendment to the Indian appropriation bill offered by Mr. Jones, (Dem., Ark.), by a vote of thirty to sixteen. As has been the practice for two or three years the free homes measure was offered as an amendment to the bill, but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was general legislation and therefore not germane to an appropriation bill. Without division the bill was passed. The measure carries about $5,414,000.

The resolution respecting the seating of former Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, was then laid before the senate, and Mr. Chandler announced that the friends of Mr. Quay were ready for a vote.

Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, hoped no vote would be taken at this time. He was, he said, in receipt of a telegram from an absent senator who desired that no time for a vote be fixed until he returned.

Mr. Stewart, (Nevada), thought that Mr. Burrows' request that the case go over was in view of the unanimous consent, unusual and unreasonable. "The senator has had months in which to prepare his speech and now he wants more months," said Mr. Stewart, tartly.

Mr. Chandler, in view of a statement by Mr. Aldrich that the business of the senate would be facilitated by the fixing of a date for a vote upon the case asked that the vote be taken two weeks from to-morrow at 4 p. m., but Mr. Burrows again interposed objection, while a certain senator was absent. Mr. Penrose requested the name of the absent senator, Mr. Burrows responding that he was not at liberty to give the name. He withdrew his objection to the effort to fix a date for a vote, but Mr. Jones, (Arkansas), renewed it and the Quay case went over, with the understanding that Mr. Chandler to-morrow, would ask that a date be fixed for a vote, probably two weeks from to-morrow.

Dull Day in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.--This was a dull day in the house. The agricultural appropriation bill was under discussion and was made the vehicle of considerable desultory debate on irrelevant present topics. Good progress was made with the bill after the close of general debate, twenty-five of the thirty-seven pages being covered before adjournment.

STATEMENTS DENIED

By State Department That Territory for the Canal Has Been Acquired.

WASHINGTON, April 9.--The state department authorized a denial of the published statement that it has practically completed an arrangement for the acquisition of a considerable strip of territory along the route of the proposed Nicaragua canal. It is added that under no circumstances would the department feel warranted in taking steps in that direction, or making any movement relative to the various canal projects until Congress had signified its wishes by acting affirmatively upon either the pending Hay-Pascoe treaty, disposing of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, or a single-handed progress in the canal project, or one of the pending acts for the construction of a canal.

DROPPED FROM ROLLS.

Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert Could Not Face the Music and Asked to Have His Name Stricken from the Books of the Church.

NEW YORK, April 9.--The Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert to-day formally withdrew from the Presbyterian church. His resignation was contained in a letter to the presbytery of New York, which met to-day in its regular semi-annual meeting and Dr. McGiffert's request that his name be dropped from the roll of the presbytery was granted.

The letter is in part as follows:

"I desire to say that I don't withdraw because I regard the charges of heresy preferred against me as well founded, or because I recognize the justice of the accusations that have been made in many quarters, for I still believe, as I believed when I wrote to the general assembly last spring, that my views are in harmony with the faith of the Presbyterian church and of evangelical Christendom in all vital and essential matters; but I cannot feel that it is my duty to go through the trial before the general assembly which the appeal will doubtless precipitate, and I am unwilling needlessly to prolong the agitation that has been disintegrating the church and preventing it from giving itself unreservedly to its true work of advancing the kingdom of God.

"I claim that the question of first importance touching the results I have reached, is not, do they accord with the Presbyterian standards. But, are they true? In a trial for heresy, the inquiry inevitably concerns itself chiefly with the former question and the latter is too largely overlooked."

Annual Meeting of Medical Society. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., April 9.--The annual meeting of the state medical society will be held at Morgantown, May 9, 10 and 11.

HIGH HOPES OF ENGLAND ARE CRUSHED.

Lord Roberts Up Against the Real Thing and in for a Hard Winter Campaign.

SOLDIERS IN NEED OF CLOTHING.

Lord Kitchener Given the Important Duty of Watching the Railways. Mine Discovered in Time.

LONDON, April 10, 5 a. m.--Britons are beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Lord Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprise. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for re-mounts and winter clothing for the troops, whose thin cotton khaki uniforms and boots are worn out.

General Dabrant and General Gatacre are both at a standstill. Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieving Mafeking, for which purpose apparently the eighth division now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley.

Tried to Draw Them Into a Mine.

Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the conditions there, showing that the Boers have tried by abandoning their trenches, to lure the besieged out into a mined ambush. Fortunately the British engineers discovered the mine, cut the wire communication and unearthed 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

What the chances are for an advance to Pretoria may be judged from the fact that only from six to ten thousand horses are on their way to the Cape and from the further fact that the military tailoring departments only within the last three weeks began making woolen khaki uniforms. It is said it will take at least two months to provide 200,000 uniforms.

Mr. Steyn's address to the Free State Raad at Kroonstad is confirmed. The Fischer-Welmarsen deputation has full power to negotiate for peace, subject to the Raad's sanction.

Lady Roberts will remain at Cape Town. The Duke of Westminster, the Duke of Marlborough and Lord Henry Cavendish Bentinck have gone to the front.

Soldiers Sleep in Trenches.

LONDON, April 10.--The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing Sunday, says: "The railway and telegraph are working well. Works and trenches have been prepared in suitable positions around Bloemfontein. The greatest vigilance is exercised. Some of the troops sleep in the trench.

"Confirmation has been received of the report that the Boers are in laager in considerable force with guns, at Donskerspoort, eighteen miles southeast. The British scouts report another body still closer. The Boer patrols have grown very daring, venturing much nearer our tents."

British Suffered Great Slaughter.

LONDON, April 10.--The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Times, telegraphing Sunday, says: "Two captured Boers agree that only fifty men remained unrounded out of the whole British column captured at Reddersburg.

"General Gatacre and his staff were fired on from enclosures while they temporarily occupied Reddersburg.

"Considerable movement of troops has occurred here, with the object of preventing surprise."

Wepener Garrison Isolated.

LONDON, April 10.--This Times publishes the following from Wepener, dated Sunday, April 8: "The Wepener garrison is practically isolated. However the lines are enormously strong and the force is fully provisioned.

"Desultory firing between outposts continues. A command estimated at 2,000, with four guns, went into laager last night five miles from here, in the De Wetsdorp."

TEXAS FLOOD RECEDING.

Full Effect of the Volume of Water Being Felt in Lower Counties--One Road Has Five Hundred Washouts.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 9.--The flood situation here is improving somewhat, but the reports from points below indicate that the full effect of the immense volume of water is being felt in Wharton and Lafayette counties, everything being inundated and much loss of property and live stock being reported. In Bastrop county, the flood has caused much damage to property interests and something like fifty washouts are reported by the railways. Advice from the area surrounding the county seat of Bastrop county are to the effect that there has been some loss of life among the farming class, as their homes were inundated without warning by the tidal wave, but outside of an unconfirmed rumor that eight lives were lost, nothing can be learned.

The International & Great Northern railway, and the Missouri, Kansas & Texas have been severely crippled by the floods. The first named road has had five hundred washouts and lost bridges on its road from Hearne to the Rio Grande. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas is likewise a heavy loser, having to abandon much of its track altogether and use the International & Great Northern from Taylor to Milano and the Santa Fe tracks from there to North Texas points.

The citizens of this city held a mass meeting to-day at which those concerned of opinion was that it was not feasible to rebuild the dam and power house, although no definite action was taken. A proposition was made to the meeting by the old water company whose plant has likewise suffered much from the flood, that they would take all the piping and wiring of the electric plant and such of their apparatus as could be recovered from the wreckage, pay fair value for the same and rejuvenate their plant here and furnish the city with water and light within two weeks. The proposition was handed over to a committee of twenty citizens to be considered.

ANOTHER ARMY SUICIDE.

Captain Louis Ostheim Takes His Life in a Chicago Hotel--Was to Have Been Married Yesterday.

CHICAGO, April 9.--Captain Louis Ostheim, first United States artillery, who was to have been married to-day to Mrs. Eva Bruce at the home of her uncle, Walter B. Plister, in this city, was found dead in bed at the Auditorium annex last night. There was a bullet wound in his right temple. The finding of a revolver in the bed, the nature of the wound and the position of the body all indicated that he had committed suicide.

From the fact that Captain Ostheim was last seen about the hotel Saturday night, it is supposed that he took his life some time between then and Sunday morning. When his door was locked all day, an investigation was made and the discovery of the suicide resulted.

Captain Ostheim was 38 years old. He was born in Pennsylvania and educated at West Point. In 1883 he was admitted to the army. Previous to the Spanish-American war he was stationed at Fort Sheridan and it was during his stay there that he made the acquaintance of Mrs. Bruce. He came from Philadelphia and registered at the Annex on April 2, having recently returned from service with the Sixth artillery in the Philippines for the express purpose of celebrating his marriage.

The revolver with which Captain Ostheim shot himself had been purchased by him for self-protection, Saturday, as he carried a large amount of money with him. It is the theory of his friends that the captain awoke Sunday morning in one of his nightmares and shot himself, not knowing what he was doing.

WHEELING'S CHANCES NOT PROMISING

For Either of the First District Republican Conventions, Say the Politicians.

WESTON OR SISTERSVILLE

Will Probably Secure Congressional Nominating Convention, and Clarksburg the Other.

Last night's trains from the interior of the state brought to Wheeling the advance guard of the Republican executive committee of the First congressional district, which will meet in the office of Chairman S. G. Smith, this morning at 10 o'clock, to discuss the situation, and to fix the dates and name the places for the congressional nominating and district delegate conventions. Members of the committee who had arrived last night were: Messrs. Goodwin, of Lewis; Carter, of Doddridge; Denham, of Harrison; Senator Cole, representing Braxton, and J. S. Brannon, of Gilmer. Mr. V. L. Highland is also here to attend the meeting. Among to-day's arrivals will be Mr. Hardman, of Tyler; Mr. Wilson, of Marshall; Mr. Scott, of Brooke, and E. D. Marshall, of Hancock. Mr. Clark, of Wetzel, is sick, and will not attend the meeting; he sends his mail vote on the conventions, voting for Clarksburg for the nominating convention and Moundsville for the delegate convention. The Ohio county member is Mr. Hugo L. Loos.

For the nominating convention, there are four towns contesting, Moundsville, Wheeling, Sistersville and Weston. Wheeling's application comes from the chamber of commerce, and if the committee acts favorably the metropolis of the state will entertain the visitors handsomely. However, the convention of '98 was held here, and the cry has gone up that "Wheeling wants everything." It is said that this city's claims will not be pushed to the detriment of other towns wanting the convention, but if Wheeling is given the convention she will gladly avail herself of the opportunity of entertaining the First district Republicans. The impression is abroad that the convention will go to Sistersville or Weston, probably to the latter. For the delegate convention, Clarksburg seems to find most favor.

Talks With Visitors.

Senator George Cole, of Lewis county, who holds the proxy of Braxton on the committee, when seen at midnight, said the situation politically in the interior of the state is all that could be desired from the Republican point of view, and presages party success next fall.

Mr. J. S. Brannon, of Glenville, also arrived at midnight. He has been a familiar figure at Republican conventions for nearly four decades, having attended every state and First district congressional convention since the civil war, in which, by the way, he served in the Union army with gallantry and distinction. Out in Gilmer, he says, prosperity's wave has come rolling over hill and down vale in a manner that will surely make many Republican good times converts. His county, he says, has never asked for recognition in this district, but he feels that the time has come when old Gilmer's request that her gallant soldier boy, Captain Daniel U. O'Brien, be chosen one of the district's delegates to the national convention, should be met with a favorable response. Captain O'Brien was one of the most efficient officers in the Second West Virginia Volunteers, a regiment that was conceded to rank among the best that came from the ranks of citizenship at the call of President McKinley at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war.

All of the visitors speak well of the First district's candidate for a place on the state ticket--James K. Hall, of Wheeling, who aspires to succeed Auditor LaFollette. It is generally believed that Mr. Hall will have nearly the solid support of the First district, and his friends are enthusiastic over his chances for success. More than the politicians of other districts, the First district people know of "Jim" Hall's remarkable abilities as a political organizer--they remember his work in '94, when a Democratic majority of 200 in Ohio county was reversed and a Republican majority of 1,500 substituted.

For the man who has done this the party men throughout the district say the auditorial plum is not too great an honor.

Another New Company.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. CHARLESTON, April 9.--A commission was granted by the adjutant general for the organization of a company of the national guard at Anthon, Wetzel county, and commissions were issued to C. F. Joffile to be captain, and J. W. Stewart to be first lieutenant.

Took Her Usual Ride.

DUBLIN, April 9.--Queen Victoria took her usual drive in the vice regal grounds this morning and paid her promised visit to the city this afternoon, leaving Phoenix Park at about 4 o'clock. Large crowds of people witnessed her majesty's departure and the route followed was thronged.

Her majesty was received with very great enthusiasm throughout her drive.

Editor Goes to Jail.

for assaulting Ramsey Colles, proprietor of the Irish Figaro in the latter's office this morning. He decided to take the imprisonment.

FAILED TO BREAK IN.

Burglars Make an Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob the Charles-Town National Bank.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va., April 9.--An unsuccessful attempt was made at 2 o'clock this morning, to rob the First National bank in this city. The bank is located in the Talbot block in the central portion of the city in full glare of two arc lights. The adjoining rooms are occupied by stores. The upper flats are occupied as residences and the occupants were aroused from sleep by noises of heavy sledging. When they tried to get out they found their doors all fastened from the outside.

One of the residents suspecting burglary, went out upon a balcony in front of the building, when he heard a man across the street say: "Come out." Immediately three men came out of the bank and leisurely walked up the street. An alarm was given, but the burglars had fled. Investigation proved that they had broken the lock on the gate of an iron enclosure of the outside and that jimnies had been used to open the front door. The combination lock on the outer door of the vault had been broken down with a heavy sledge, which the robbers left behind, and which has since been identified by a local blacksmith whose shop had been broken open for the purpose of obtaining this and other tools.

There are no clues to the robbers, although a band of tramps have been located near the city for several days. The bank usually keeps on hand about $20,000 in cash. An award will likely be offered by the directors, at its next meeting.

UNSATISFACTORY VERDICT.

The People Feel That Cramblett Did Not Have Justice--Ministers of the Gospel Take Up the Case.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio, April 9.--A great mystery remains yet to be solved in the case of the murder of James Gosnell, for which Quincy Cramblett was found guilty. The general public is not satisfied with the verdict and a new trial is what is generally looked for. Jurymen are being kept busy answering the question, "Just how did you arrive at that verdict?"

It is not only being discussed on the streets and in the houses and shops, but from the pulpit. One minister talked before his Sunday school about it. Still another, Rev. J. S. Reager, pastor of the First M. E. church, devoted his entire sermon to the trial last evening and the church was filled with auditors. He did not criticize the prosecutor, the defendant, the court or the jury, but he held that it was not proved to a certainty that the accused was guilty. He said a suspicion does not constitute guilt, but the burden is on the state to make a case and the accused does not have to prove his innocence. He said he is willing to contribute from his means toward a new trial.

ASK FOR NEW TRIAL.

Cramblett's Attorneys Allege Many Reasons Why He Should be Tried Again.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

STUEBENVILLE, O., April 9.--The attorneys for Quincy Cramblett filed motions for a new trial this evening. As reasons for the same, they allege that the verdict was against the weight of the evidence, and against the law; error in impeaching the jury and refusing to quash the venire; error in refusing to permit the jury to view the premises; error in the admission of certain evidence; and in rejecting of other evidence; error in admitting the gun and other exhibits, and error in the charge and also misconduct of the jury.

Shot a Tramp.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. Va., April 9.--This morning Frank Wise, near here, shot a tramp in the side for refusing to get off his premises and for persisting in entering his premises. The fellow, who gives his name as Judson Hamilton, is seriously wounded. He said his father's name is Daniel Hamilton and he is a carpenter in the Reading railroad car shops at Reading, Pa. and that his mother lives in Sullivan county, Pennsylvania. After the shooting, Wise, who is a respectable citizen, gave himself up, but he was not arrested.

Death of Glenn Lyle.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., April 9.--Mr. Glenn Lyle, a highly respected farmer, died here to-day aged 75 years. He was born in this county and has always taken an active part in local affairs. He was one of the most enthusiastic Masons in this section, being an active member of Robert White Lodge No. 67, A. F. & A. M., and one of the originators of Palestine Commandery No. 2. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hensel, of Hagerstown, Maryland.
